Professional Development for Secondary RE Teachers

Core Judaism, studying a second religion at GCSE

Responding to the revised subject content for Religious Studies GCSE, this course is aimed at schools teaching Judaism as a second study religion

Suitable for KS3 & KS4 teachers, delivering both the full and short courses, this packed session will support, enhance and develop teacher's understanding of Judaism as a living, breathing faith, providing confidence and greater subject knowledge of beliefs and teachings and practices for delivery in the GSCE classroom.

The course will aim to cover the necessary specification and key areas of assessment including:

- History, sources of authority, law and wisdom
- The nature of God, belief and life
- Key moral principles
- Diversity of beliefs and interpretative responses
- Worship, features and uses of a synagogue
- Prayer, Shabbat, Kashrut
- Jewish yearly cycle and festivals
- Rituals and ceremonies

Using artefacts and sacred texts to enrich teaching, delegates will gain a clear understanding of the cycle of the Jewish year to help bring the practices, traditions and religion to life. Specialist advisors will be on hand to provide clarification for a more nuanced understanding.

By attending this session delegates will:

- Develop knowledge and understanding of the beliefs, practices and traditions of the Jewish faith and apply this confidently to the new GCSE exam specifications and key areas of assessment
- Explore the diversity of the religion as a relevant, living, breathing faith
- Gain a clearer, more nuanced understanding of the teachings and interpretative responses to Judaism
