

Getting REady – Primary RE

Implementing your locally agreed syllabus

Breathe RE

Breathing new life into Religious Education and Collective Worship

An interactive training session designed to equip and inspire primary teachers to deliver outstanding RE lessons which meet the requirements of the locally agreed syllabus and enhance pupil engagement and curiosity. Practical and time saving strategies to implement your agreed syllabus for maximum impact.

Choose from our live online, 'golden hour', or our highly successful 90-minute in school twilight training, half and full CPD days. Online sessions begin at £200 per school and face to face training prices begin at £330.

Book now to enable teachers to teach Religious Education creatively and with increased confidence.

Offer ideas for active and engaging RE lessons which will help pupils to develop personal and critical responses. Getting REady aims to:

- develop a range of creative and challenging activities which will enhance pupils' religious, theological and philosophical literacy
- equip teachers with exemplars which will broaden and deepen subject knowledge about a range of religions and worldviews
- explore engaging resources and classroom ready ideas to reflect on key questions and core concepts.

To discuss your requirements, please contact Lisa Kassapian
email lisa@breatheRE.org mobile 07557 105548
Visit our website on Breathe RE.org

Who will be providing Getting REady?

Lisa Kassapian is an inspirational Religious Education Adviser with an outstanding reputation for providing syllabus and curriculum design, quality advice and high impact training for RE, Collective Worship and Spiritual Development.

Lisa offers a variety of practical, Religious Education training, through her independent consultancy, Breathe RE.

